

Freedom from Comparing Prayer

- Father, today I receive that I am your workmanship, your masterwork, create in Christ Jesus spiritually transformed, renewed, and ready to be used for Good Works.
- I release everyone that I have been comparing myself to so that I can now walk in what you have prepared for me beforehand, taking paths which you set so that I can walk in them.
- Today I choose to live the good life, which you prearranged and made ready for me. In Jesus' name.
Amen.
