

Prayer for Your Husband

- Father, my husband can't love me until he loves you first! His time with you will cause him to spend time with me, because I am the closest thing to you that he will ever find. I know this because you made me for him! His help mate.
- Give my husband Your heart when it comes to me. Let him see me the way you do.
- As we mature and do live together, to the full until it overflows.
- I speak to his heart and tell it to turn toward you, in love, thoughts, faith, trust and hope, that no matter what he is going through he is not alone.
- Cover his heart with your presence so that he can rest and be assured, that his decisions will bring you Glory; that will overflow into our life and marriage.
- Your Glory will then become our direction, rest and healing.
- Speak to the little boy inside that always masked his fear and pain because he was told to suck it up and never show his emotions.
- Let him know that he can trust You, with his fear and his pain. That you won't judge him but embrace him...because you always walk within him in both his weaknesses and his strengths, to bring him forward to victory!
- I thank you that you made my husband the head of our household, because you trusted him to always put you first and lead as an example of someone who would love me and our family as you do. In Jesus' name. Amen.
